

Lobbying and caucusing

Lobbying

Delegates engage with other delegates to exchange ideas, build support, and find common interests.

Blocs

A bloc is a group of delegates with similar or complementary positions working together on solutions and resolutions.

Why join a bloc?

- Combine ideas and resources
- Strengthen solutions
- Increase support for your proposals
- Collaborate on working papers and Draft Resolutions

Unmoderated Caucus

An informal discussion period used to:

- Find and form blocs
- Negotiate solutions
- Draft clauses
- Merge working papers
- Build support for a Draft Resolution

What to Do

Approach → Introduce → Discuss → Negotiate → Draft → Merge

Stay diplomatic, contribute actively, and ensure your country's policies are represented.
