

Rules of procedure

1. Roll Call

Delegates must respond:

- Present — Abstentions are permitted.
- Present and Voting — Abstentions are not permitted.

2. General Speakers List (GSL)

The GSL is used for formal debate. Delegates may present their country's position, concerns, and solutions. Delegates speak in the order set by the Chair and must follow the allotted speaking time.

3. Points

- Point of Order: Raises a procedural error.
- Point of Information (POI): Asks a question to a speaker, when permitted.
- Parliamentary Inquiry: Seeks clarification on committee procedure.
- Right of Reply: Responds to a serious personal or national insult, subject to Chair approval.

4. Motions

Delegates may propose motions for:

- Moderated Caucus
- Unmoderated Caucus
- Extension of Caucus
- Closure of Debate
- Suspension/Adjournment of Committee, where applicable

5. Moderated Caucus

A structured discussion on a specific topic.

A motion must state:

Topic + Duration + Speaking Time

6. Unmoderated Caucus

An informal discussion period for:

- Negotiation
- Bloc formation
- Drafting
- Merging resolutions

7. Voting

Delegates must follow the Chair's instructions during voting.

Substantive voting: For / Against / Abstain, subject to the committee's rules.

8. Decorum

Delegates must:

- Remain diplomatic and respectful.
- Address remarks through the Chair.
- Follow the Chair's directions.
- Avoid personal attacks or disruptive behaviour.

Note

Conference-specific Rules of Procedure and Chair instructions take precedence where applicable.